

I am very much opposed to the attempt to allow banks and simaliar groups have access to call personal or business phones at their leisure. The FCC should let the states maintain our current privacy. The junk mail we receive from banks alone is absurd. We do not need them calling at anytime, place or reason. Please maintain our privacy.

Thanks,

Larry Crane